women who take the pill must visit their doctor again about two weeks later to confirm the treatment has worked.

to the pharmaceutical and healthcare industries but the author’s conclusion; that millions